

Analysis of The Black Prince

PHI 375/SPM 375

Due October 3, 2013

Please write 2-3 pages about whether any aspect of The Black Prince illuminates the topic of the course. You may argue that it doesn't in fact illuminate the topic. But, if you do this, you must explain why. You can draw on any aspect of the novel as evidence for your thesis—it's overall message, details of the plot, descriptions of the characters, particular scenes, its literary devices etc. You must clearly state your thesis in the first paragraph. The paper should contain many paragraphs dedicated to arguing for your thesis. It should end with a clear summary of the argument (a la your prose summary in an argument analysis).
